«Συχνά οι συλλογές της είναι επηρεασμένες από παραμύθια και ταινίες. Η συλλογή Άνοιξη-Καλοκαίρι 2010 ήταν βασισμένη στις περιπέτειες της Αλίκης στη χώρα των θαυμάτων. Η συλλογή Φθινόπωρο-Χειμώνας 2011 είναι βασισμένη στις ηρωίδες του Άλφρεντ Χίτσκοκ.»

“Most of her collections are influenced by fairytales or movies. Her Summer collection 2010 was influenced by Alice's adventures in Wonderland and her new upcoming collection for Winter 2011 is influenced by Alfred Hitchcock's female heroines.”

Tota Patsalidou

She was born in Nicosia and studied fashion design at Salford University in Manchester where she graduated with Honours. She then attended a two-year course to learn in depth the technical side of fashion design, pattern making and construction of garments. She has participated in several fashion design exhibitions such as “The Fashion academy award”, “Tell A Story” trade show and “Cyprus Fashion Week”. In 2003 she designed dresses for ‘Miss Tourism’ Beauty Pageant. In 2006 she launched her own space, a shop-atelier named TOTSi, in the old town of Nicosia, where she displays and sells her creations. Her collections are often characterised as romantic, oscillating between playful but also minimal tones of elegance and style.
